Damola is a seasoned Trademark Attorney based in the Texas office of Nolte Lackenbach Siegel, specializing in all aspects of trademark law. Her practice centers on providing strategic counsel to clients on trademark registration, prosecution, due diligence, and portfolio management. With a commitment to excellence and a wealth of experience, Damola is dedicated to guiding businesses and international clients on how to effectively protect their valuable trademarks and brands.

Throughout her career, Damola has garnered extensive experience working with a diverse range of businesses and international clients, which has honed her expertise in the intricacies of trademark and brand protection. Her profound understanding of the complexities involved in trademark law enables her to offer comprehensive solutions tailored to her clients' specific needs.

One of Damola's key strengths lies in advising businesses on navigating the intricate process of trademark registrations. She diligently conducts thorough searches to determine trademark availability, ensuring her clients make informed decisions regarding their brand identity. In addition, she skillfully handles the preparation, filing, and prosecution of trademark applications, ensuring a seamless process from start to finish.

Beyond her legal practice, Damola is passionate about empowering businesses to build and protect their brands. She actively shares her knowledge through online educational initiatives on the benefits and strategies of trademark protection.
