With over 20 years of experience as an international patent paralegal, Judy is responsible for the prosecution and maintenance of global patent portfolios. Her expertise and training include acquisition of rights, guidance to comply with the patent requirements of more than fifty countries, and the preparation of critical patent matters and patent enforcement actions in multiple jurisdictions. Because of her skills and experience, Judy often provides direct instruction to clients in their offices on a worldwide basis. Judy also has a legal background with NBC-TV and real estate matters. With the other members of the Patent Department, Judy collaborates on the recording of assignments, corporate mergers, and updates to client's corporate structures.

On a personal side, Judy has an extended family and enjoys hiking, reading, and supporting the community in charity.
